We particularly express our appreciation of the boat excursion given by Business Men of Frankfort and Official Board of the church.

J. D. REDD.
P. J. ROSS,
W. D. WELBURN.

The following resolution with reference to J. W. Hughes was unanimously adopted:

In view of the fact that for 31 years, consecutively, Rev. J. W. Hughes, a brother much loved, has done faithful and efficient work in this Conference, in pastoral, revival, and educational work; he has led many souls to Christ, added many to the membership and ministry of the M. E Church, South; his loyalty and faithfulness to the church can not be questioned; he has supported the church not only with his services, but with his money; a very large number of strong laymen and their families in most of the stations and circuits of our Conferences were converted under his ministry; from his school many strong young men have entered the ministry of the home church and are doing faithful, efficient work; the foreign field has relieved its part directly from the same; we are sorry to lose him from the membership of the Conference to which he has given the best part of life. As a Conference we desire thus to express our love and appreciation of him and his work.

R. B. BAIRD,
J. W. JACKSON.
J. D. REDD,

Memoirs.

REV. W. T. BENTON.

Rev. W. T. Benton was born in Caswell county, North Carolina, November 2, 1826. When a youth, sixteen years of age, his parents moved to Scott county, Virginia, and resided there until 1850, then removed to Kentucky.

Brother Benton was reared in a Christian home, whose holy influence and sacred memories lingered with him during his long eventful life. His father was a Methodist class leader, his mother a consecrated Christian. His early conversion may be attributed to his home environment. At the age of eight years, when kneeling by his mother's side, while his father was conducting family worship he was converted. With reference to his early conversion, the testimony of his later life was: "I never doubted the genuineness of my conversion."

In his youth, he was not without educational advantages. He received a first class high school or academic training. He was also a law student for two years. The equipment furnished by the schools was increased and reinforced by reading and study in after life. When a boy, the habit of reading good books was formed; this practice became the fixed custom of his life.

In 1851, he joined the Kentucky Conference at Mt. Sterling, Bishop Paine was president, Bishop Soule was present. His first appointment was "Yellow Creek Mission." Where Millersburg now stands was a part of this mission. In 1853, at Versailles, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Capers. In 1855 he was ordained elder by Bishop Paine at Danville. He was superannuated at the Cynthiana Conference in 1903. He was a member of the Conference more than 55 years. In the active ministry 52 years.

As a minister, Brother Benton was loyal to the doctrines of his church and in perfect accord with its policy. Fifty-two times he received an appointment from a Bishop, fifty-two times he went forth from an annual conference session to serve his church and his God according to his strength and ability. The scriptural injunction "Make full proof of thy ministry" was conscientiously observed by this itinerant veteran. Success attended his ministry. One qualified to bear testimony thus remarked: "No charge ever suffered under his ministry."

His preaching was scriptural, clear and convincing. He was especially gifted in prayer. He was a good pastor. In numberless homes the memory of this man of God is cherished.

At the Cynthiana Conference, in 1903, the itinerant veteran was superannuated. With his desires and feelings influencing his judgment, he may have questioned the wisdom of his brethren in placing him on the retired list, but he gracefully submitted. No superannuate was ever more loyal to his church. He was ever ready and willing to preach for his brethren, conduct a prayer meeting, or render any service within his power. The regularity of his church attendance and interest manifested in all the services of the church called forth many words of commendation. He was always in his place in the house of God. The memory of the fidelity of the aged servant of God is an inspiration to all who knew him.

During the years of his superannuation much of his time was devoted to the interests of the Preachers' Aid Society. As the agent of this society he visited various churches within the bounds of the Conference, delivered addresses, and took collections. Thus annually the income of the society was supplemented. For many years he was most intimately identified with the society and its work. The society will never secure a more faithful or efficient collector of dues.

On October 14, 1856, Bro. Benton was married to Miss Lucy Sargent, daughter of Captain Sargent, with whom he lived most happily, until God took the companion of his youth, the mother of his children, to join the great family above. Her death occurred May 11, 1901.

The parents have joined the family above, the three children remain: Mrs. Belle Shoptaugh, of Millersburg; Mrs. J. R. Wallingford and Lev. Benton, of Cynthiana. Parents were never more interested in the temporal and spiritual welfare of their children. For them no sacrifice was too great. How suggestive is the father's own statement: "By careful management and strict economy, we were able to give all three a collegiate education." Beautiful indeed was the father's devotion to his children. It was his custom to visit daily the daughter and son living in Cynthiana.

On October 12, 1904, he was again married to Mrs. Synthelia Manning. Very suggestive of the comfort and happiness in connection with this marriage are his own words with reference to his wife: "She has been a great blessing to me in my declining years." She who thus loved and tenderly cared for the aged itinerant during the last years of his pilgrimage remains to mourn his departure.

Bro. Benton's death was sudden and unexpected. That his physical strength was failing careful observers had noticed, but none thought the end so near. On January 9th, accompanied by his wife, he attended prayer meeting and took an active part in the service. After the service he returned home and was dead within a few moments after his arrival. Thus he went from a prayer meeting here to a praise meeting there. The funeral took place from the Methodist Church in Cynthiana. The service was conducted by the writer, assisted by W. F. Taylor and the resident pastors. The following members of the Conference were present: J. P. Strother, C. C. Fisher, J. R. Savage and W. J. Morphis. The body was laid to rest in beautiful Battle Grove Cemetery; the spirit had returned to God.

REV. B. E. LANCASTER.

The subject of this sketch, Rev. Benjamin Elmore Lancaster, was born August 10, 1865. He was converted at an early age and soon afterward united with the M. E. Church, South. Feeling the call of God to preach, in his eighteenth year, he entered the work with such zeal and consecration that he had marked success in all his meetings, and many souls came to God and into the kingdom under his earnest appeals.

He was lovingly known at this time as "the boy preacher." His early years were spent in Covington, Ky., where he attended Dodd's School for boys. He graduated in Kentucky Wesleyan College and entered the theological department of Vanderbilt University, where he prepared for the life work for which God had called him. He showed the mettle of manhood when on entering college he said to one of the professors: "I am a poor boy but will do anything honorable to work my way through."

the active ministry for seventeen years, serving faithfully the various charges to which he was assigned, and taking uncomplainingly the hardships incident to the work. He was a good soldier of Jesus Christ, and endured the trials of the soldiers life with the faith and courage worthy of a follower of the great Captain of our salvation.

He served the following charges—Spears, 3 years; New Columbus, 2; Clay City, 1; Junction City, 2; West Liberty, 1; Pittsburg, 2; Spears 3; and Polsgrove, 2, and one year as Conference Colporteur.

Bro. Ison was reared in a Godly home, and the impress of that home remained with him through life. A home in which the ministry is honored, the church loved, the family altar observed and in which the spirit of Christ reigns is the one that God most frequently honors in calling its sons to the ministry. From his early life he was inclined toward that which was good, and in his boyhood he gave his heart to God, and was ever afterward the happy possessor of a genuine and deep religious experience. He sowed no wild oats, and he had no bitter harvest to reap. In young manhood he heard God's voice calling him to the ministry, and he, conferring not with flesh and blood, answered with the readiness of one born of the Spirit.

It was the writer's privilege to be pretty closely associated with Bro. Ison during the last few months of his life and the one thing that impressed him most was the fact of his goodness. It might be said of Bro. Ison, as of Barnabus of old, that he was a "good man, full of the Holy Ghost and faith." The genuineness and simplicity of his life were felt by all with whom he came in contact. None could doubt his real goodness.

He was a faithful preacher of the gospel, not handling the word of God deceitfully, but faithfully proclaiming the truth as he understood it, seeking not the praise of men, but their salvation. God honored his ministry in the conversion of many souls, some of whom are in the pulpit to-day proclaiming the gospel and thus perpetuating the influence of him through whom they were called into the fellowship of the gospel.

The last years of his life were filled with sore trials to his faith. He was afflicted with Chronic Laryngitis, thereby losing his power of speech entirely. Emerson has said, "Your actions speak so loud I can not hear what you say." In the case of our brother we did not need to hear him speak. His life was constantly speaking forth the praises of his Master.

During these last years he was not idle, but labored with his own hands to support his family, often going beyond his strength and at last almost falling in his tracks in his effort to be independent.

His last illness continued for about two months, during which time he was the most patient of sufferers. His faith never failed him in the darkest hour. His chief anxiety was for his family. He is survived by his wife and four children with whom we sympathize in their great loss. He sought their welfare in temporal things, and did all he could to provide for them after he was gone: but he was still more solicitous about them in regard to their spiritual welfare. He had longed to give each one of his children a Bible, and his joy was almost unbounded when, a few days before his death, there came into his hands the amount necessary to buy the books, saying with tears of joy, "This is an answer to my prayer."

May the children follow the teachings of that book as did their father, and be sustained by its promises as he was.

He longed so for fruit and water in the last few days of his life, but his throat was in such a condition that he could not take them, and one of the latest expressions was, "How I long for the fruits of this world, but the fruits of the tree of life will be far better, and a drink from the crystal fountain will be sweeter and more refreshing than the water of earth."

His funeral was preached by the writer in Wilmore, assisted by Rev. A. P. Jones, and we laid his remains away in the cemetery at Wilmore to await the resurrection at the last day. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

J. R. SAVAGE.

MRS. SUSIE HARRISON DITZLER.

Mrs. Susan Harrison Ditzler was born February 2, 1855, and died August 3, 1907. She was married to Rev. W. H. H. Ditzler in November, 1901, and was left a widow by his death in June, 1905.

Sister Ditzler was a young woman of more than ordinary intelligence, and possessed in a marked degree the poetic instinct. She spent much of her time in the composition of verses, and expressed many beautiful and noble sentiments in song. The depth and strength of her religious convictions and aspirations are manifest in much of her writing. Her faith in the future life was firm and full of comfort, and she wrote much of the glad reunion of family and friends in the land of eternal light.

She had a devout and reverent spirit from her childhood. She was born and reared in a Methodist home where God was feared and honored, and the minister of Christ was a frequent and welcome guest. These godly influences told upon her character. In May, 1872, when only a girl, she joined the Methodist Church at Salem on the Williamstown Circuit, under the ministry of Rev. G. C. Overstreet. Being truly born again, she lived a faithful and consistent Christian life from the day of her profession of faith in Christ. She was quiet, unpretentious, and confiding in her disposition, being slow to believe any evil thing concerning another, and ever ready to cover with the mantle of charity the faults and failures of her fellow mortals. She had her share of life's sorrows and disappointments, but bore them all bravely and well. Apparently, she was strong and vigorous in body, but really suffered much from bodily infirmities all of her life. Her spirit seemed to mellow much in the last months of her life, like a shock of corn ripening for the harvest. When the end came, though it was rather sudden, it found her prepared. She attended church at Dry Ridge on Sunday morning, July 21, took her bed with typhoid fever that afternoon, and was dead in less than two weeks.

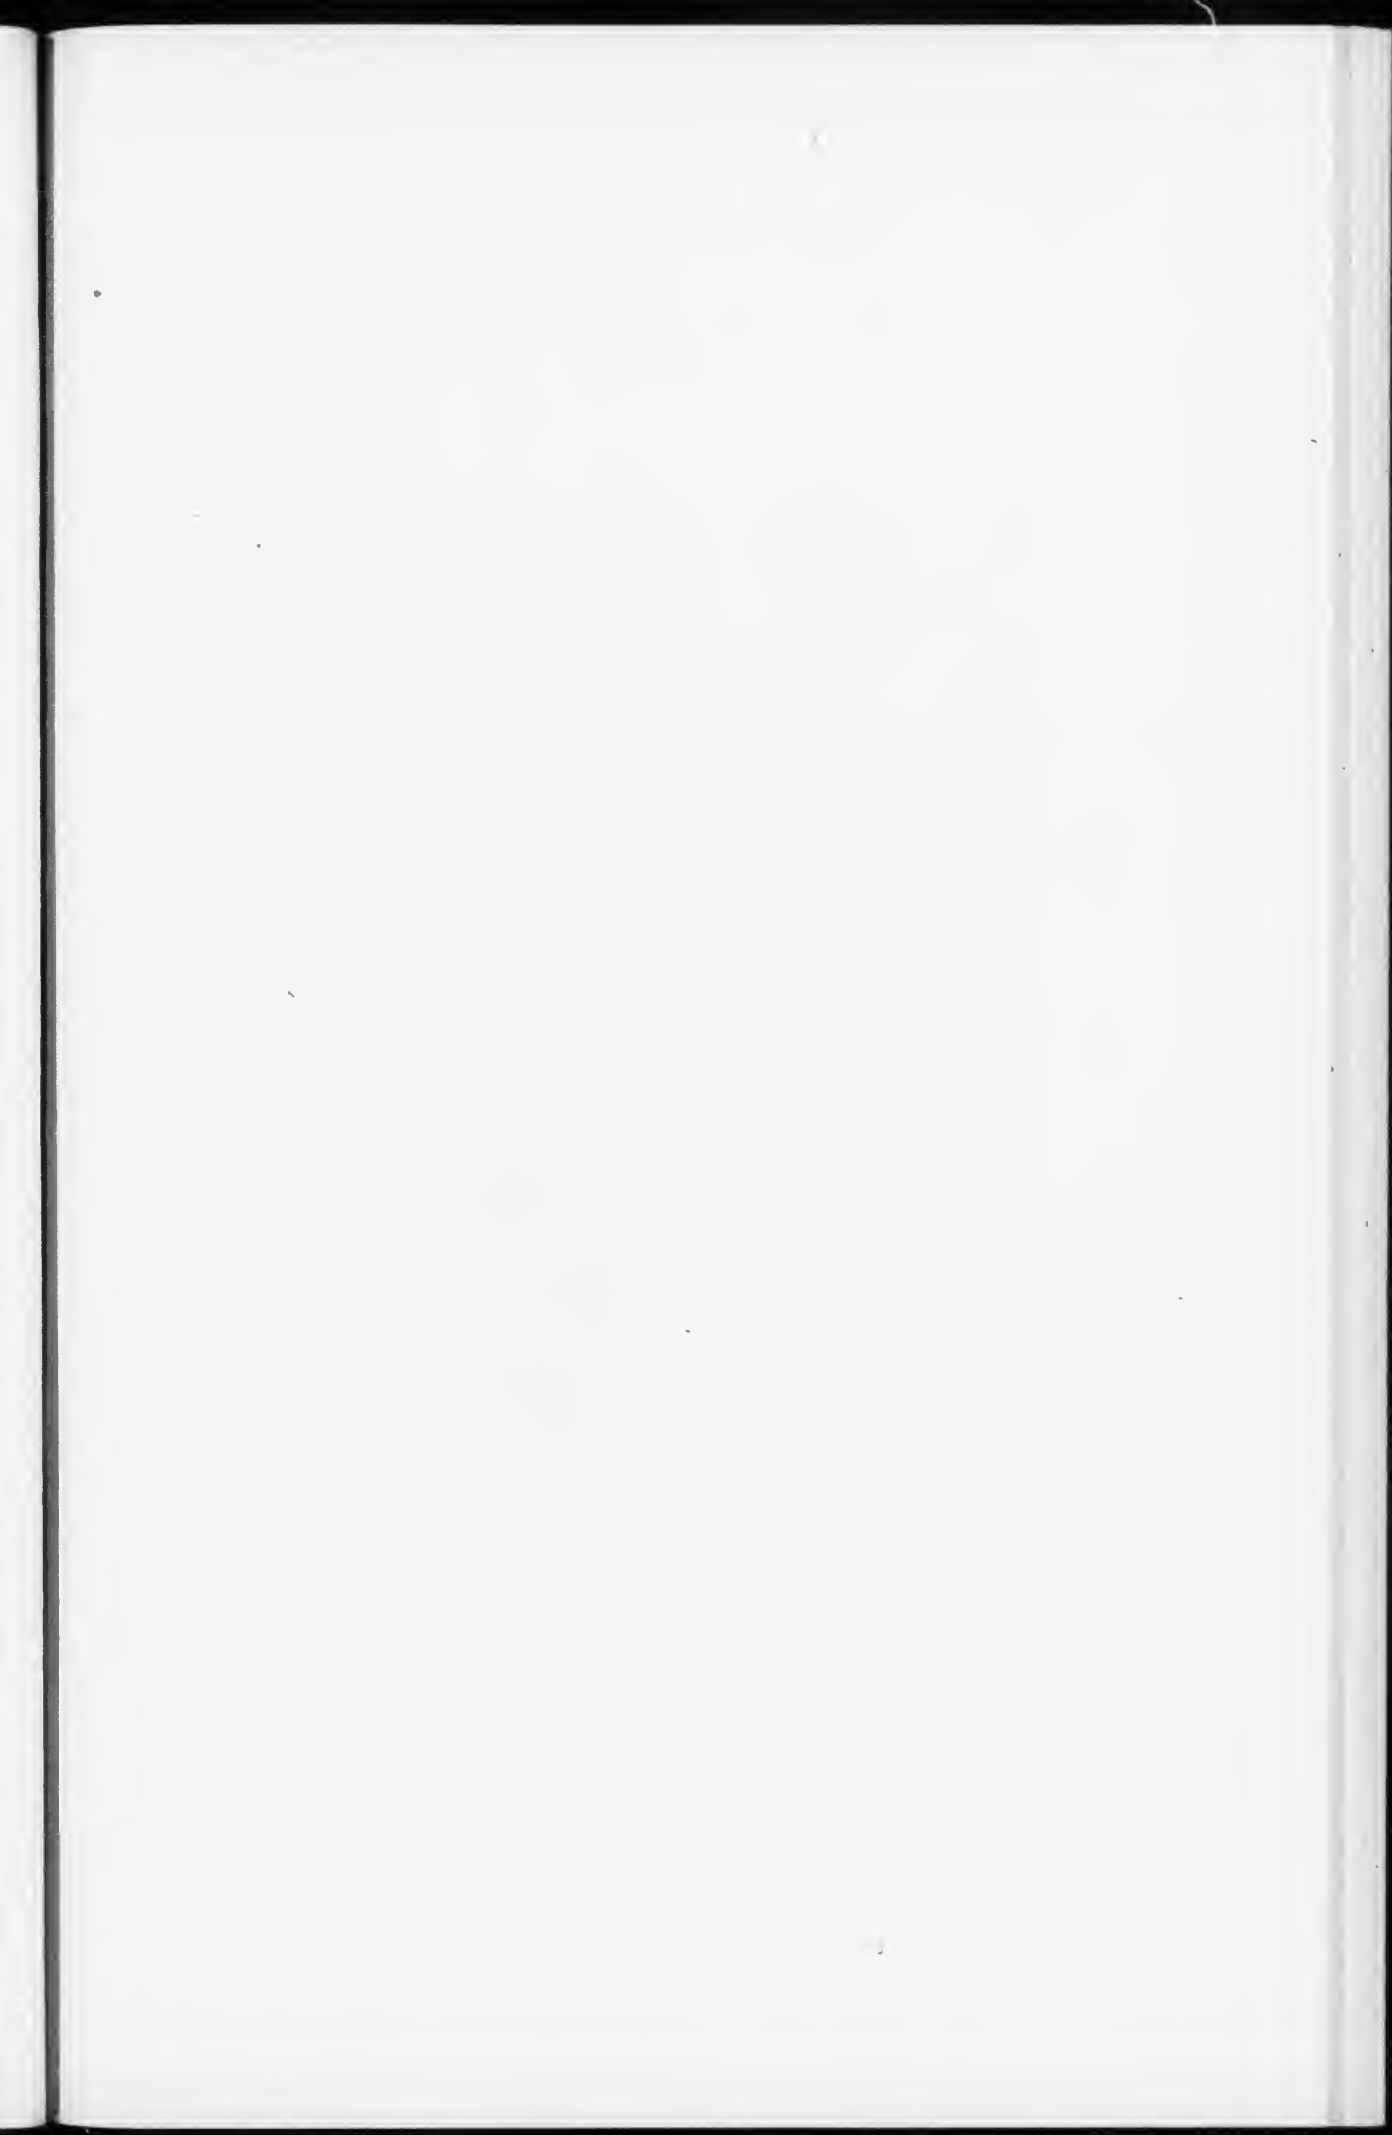

From the first, she believed the disease would be fatal. She expressed her willingness to go, and said it was well with her soul. Her family and friends have good reason to believe that she has gone to that land of eternal life of which she sung so much, and for which she so often sighed. Her pastor,

MRS. MARY E. WELBURN.

Mary Elizabeth Schwing was born in Louisville, Ky., April 20, 1823. Her parents, John G. Schwing and wife, whose maiden name was Kaye, were among the earliest settlers upon the present site of Louisville. She was one of six sisters who moved with the best in the culture and polite accomplishments of their times. She inherited from her mother a wise judgment, a practical industry, a noble unselfishness and a tendency to real piety, all of which resulted in her fitness for the weighty responsibilities which fell to her lot. She was married to Rev. Drummond Welburn, then a pastor in Louisville, in September, 1843. They lived together with mutual respect and devotion, in most perfect harmony until his death in January, 1897, more than fifty-three years.

REV. B. E. LANCASTER.

There were ten children—a son died in infancy, a daughter in childhood, a son and a daughter died in young manhood and womanhood, and a daughter and son in middle age. The survivors are Samuel K. Welburn and Frank T. Welburn, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Joseph L. Guernsey, of Orlando, Florida, and Rev. William D. Welburn, of the Kentucky Conference.

Naturally modest and retiring in disposition, all ostentation and undue demonstration being repugnant to her nature, yet her sense of duty constrained her to readily undertake any of the numerous tasks that fall to a Methodist preacher's wife. She would lead public singing or prayer; modestly bear testimony to her faith; diligently seek out the sick and needy; look up strangers, leading them to the house of God! thus constantly bearing the burdens of the church.

In 1857 the family was established at Jeffersonville, Ind., from which place her husband traveled to his various charges in the Kentucky Conference. During much of this time he was a Presiding Elder, and being absent from home, frequently as long as three and four weeks, the responsibility of the family government was entirely upon her. Her control of her family was firm and kind, there being never the semblance of disrespect or insubordination. She instructed her children diligently in unselfishness, teaching them to consider the pleasure of others above their own. She guarded the magainst the formation of personal habits that would be disagreeable to others. She assisted them in the cultivation of some of the nice distinctions in speech, giving them simple rules of her own for the avoidance of common errors in grammar.

She possessed a talent, a refined taste, and some knowledge and skill in music. She performed upon the piano for her own and her family's pleasure during her last year in life. Her health was good, and, though in later years her body became somewhat stooped, still she maintained a remarkable activity, continuing to administer to others, and requiring a minimum of care for herself. All her faculties were retained unimpaired to the last. About three weeks before her death she suffered a stroke of "intercostal neuralgia," after which she was entirely helpless and partially unconscious, obtaining the relief May 19, 1907, aged eighty-four years and one month.

In her later life she wanted for nothing; she was the object of the most devoted affection in her daughter's family. She had long been ready, and was eagerly awaiting the departure. Her son-in-law, who had associated with her intimately for more than a quarter of a century, pronounced her "the best woman he had ever known." Rev. J. S. Scobee, who had known her from girlhood, in a short talk at the funeral, said: "She was a model young girl, a model young woman, a model wife, a model mother, a model Christian and friend." Funeral services were held in Orlando, Florida, and later in Louisville by Rev. Drs. Messick, Monk and Scobee, after which the burial beside her husband in Cave Hill Cemetery.

Her son,

WILLIAM D. WELBURN.

MISSIONS.

A survey of our mission fields reveals substantial progress in every department of the mission work. While there have been vast changes in the affairs of the nations almost all have been favorable to the missionary. Some of the significant facts noted are the loss of faith in old religions, the giving away of prejudice, the dominant influence of Protestant Christian nations, the thirst for Western ideas—the turning of many heathen temples into schoolhouses, the desire for education; Christian education, these things indicate more than can be expressed in statistical table.

Certainly the Spirit of God is stirring the nations. The financial move is upward—the increase showing a total gain of $51,370, collected on assessment, $385,838—an increase of $30,212 over the previous year. Total collected from all sources, $519,216. Districts paying in full F. & D, advance from 82 to 101. One hundred and twenty-one districts last year paid in full for F. M., this year 134. Charges paying out last year, 3,227, this year, 3,634. Total membership in the Foreign Fields, 18,514, these contributed $42,785.

The number of special missionaries supported by individuals or churches is increasing. Wherever this plan has been adopted it has resulted in a deeper interest and larger liberality in the spread of the gospel. We encourage these special efforts in supporting missionaries, building churches and planting schools.

We are represented in our six mission fields by 98 missionaries, with 81 wives of missionaries, 120 native traveling and 120 native local preachers, but what are these among so many millions who are seeking the light of the Cross?

No where have such changes been wrought as in China. The veteran missionary, Griffith John, wrote some time since: "What has taken place in China amounts to a revolution. China is awake, and it only remains for the churches of Christendom to awake to their opportunity."

All over the land Buddhist temples have been turned into schoolhouses. In two provinces the New Testament has been ordered taught to 58,000,000 of people in their schools. The word of God thus is reaching all classes. The life and work of Dr. Young J. Allen, recently gone to his reward, has figured largely in bringing about these changes.

We rejoice in the great success of our brother, W. G. Cram and wife, in Korea. It means much that Korea has been in a continuous revival for three years.

Japan is, it is said, destined to be the leader and teacher of the Orient. If christianized through her this influence will dominate the East. Students by the thousands are flocking to her universities for education. The union of the Methodisms of Japan unifies and centralizes the forces for preaching the gospel and supplying the Christian education needed to make of this people a great Christian nation.

Brazil is not behind other fields in her thirst for light and knowledge. The schools and colleges are crowded to overflowing. Distances being so great the mission has been divided, the work is prospering, the membership will soon reach six thousand.

Reports from the Mexico conferences indicate substantial progress. The revival spirit is abroad and the church is taking on new life. The membership now numbers 6,415.

Our responsibility and duty to Cuba is, perhaps, greater than to any other field. We are the only Methodist body doing missionary work. She is our near neighbor. We are making progress. More than 400 increase gives us 2,400 members, with 1,400 candidates besides. These raised $14,849.28 for self support and church building, or $6.28 per member.

The home Department, under the management of the efficient Secretary, Dr. J. R. Nelson, has met with favor everywhere. We pledge our co-operation and help in every phase of this work. The successful labor of our conference missionary evangelist testifies the continuance of this work, and we recommend the appointment of Rev. F. M. Hill, the present incumbent, as Conference Missionary Secretary for the ensuing year.

The Board at Nashville in a meeting recently held, partly endorsed the Layman's movement, and instructed the Secretary to inaugurate the movement in our church, and arrange for a Layman's Convention, to be held next winter.

We commit ourselves as in hearty sympathy with the Parent Board in the earnest effort to raise a half million dollars on assessment account, and will honestly endeavor to bring it to pass.

The Missionary Training School at Nashville, with thirty students, the past year has done excellent work. Already sixty have enrolled for the ensuing year. We recommend that our people who are looking for a better equipment for any church work, take advantage of these facilities offered them.

The Young Peoples' Department is doing a foundation work in seeking to train a growing generation in missionary methods. We endorse the work and recommend that all our preachers keep in touch with the movement by writing Rev. Ed. F. Cook, the Secretary, at Nashville, and procure the literature necessary for carrying on this work. We see in the "Go Forward" an eye-opener on the subject of missions. We urge all our pastors to push its circulation.

Our Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have kept pace with the spirit and progress of missions. We give them our endorsement and help. We are glad to have with us Dr. W. W. Pinson, one of our missionary secretaries.

Frankfort, Ky., September 16, 1907.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

While the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions has strengthened its centers of missionary operations, very little of extension is to be noted during the last year. The statistics are as follows:

Countries entered, 6; No. of mission stations, 30—8 in Mexico, 2 in Cuba, 8 in China, 3 in Korea, 8 in Brazil and one among the Indians; No. of missionaries, not including those sent out at this meeting, 72; No. of Assistants, 213; No. boarding schools, 28; No. of day schools and kindergartens, 37; No. Bible Women, 152; No. scholarships, 373; No. buildings owned by Woman's Board, 25; No. rented buildings, 12, costing in annual rental $7,000. Including the Scarritt Bible and Training School in Kansas City, the value of property owned by the Woman's Board is $483,000.

Several buildings were completed this past year: The Virginia School, in Hoochow, China; the Tennessee Home and School, also in Hoochow, and the chapel of the Davidson Bible School and Louise Home in West Sookow, and the Susan B. Wilson School in Sung Kong, China. In Songdo, Korea, the Tallulah Hargrove Memorial is completed, making a beautiful home for our Songdo Missionaries. In Brazil, at Belo Horizonte, the Isabella Hendrix Institute is about completed. The next school year will open up within its walls.

It has been thought best to move the school from Havana, Cuba, to Cienfuegos, and $25,000 was appropriated for a suitable building and equipment as soon as one could be found.

Statistics in the Kentucky Conference are as follows:

Adult societies	83
Adult members	1,421
Young People societies	6
Young People members	150
Juvenile societies	19
Juvenile members	293
Total membership	1,864
Life members	312
Honorary life members	18
Honorary life patrons	2
Scholarships	5
Bible Women	10
Subscribers to Missionary Advocate	430
Subscribers to Little Workers	205
Total collection	$5,014 69

Our scholarships are located thus:

Kathryne Bigham, Korea. Supported by Millersburg Female College Young People.

Rosella Cram, Cuba. Supported by Shelbyville District.

Alvah Williams, Mexico. Supported by Hughes Chapel Auxiliary.

Mannie Fullenwider, China. Supported by Shelbyville District.

Lizzie Ashbrook, Korea. Supported by Scott St., Covington Auxiliary.

Of the ten Bible Women supported, only six are named and located.

Irene Edna Bottorff, Korea. Supported by Goshen Auxiliary.

Elizabeth Gardner, Sallie Glascock, Lillie King, Minnie Foxworthy, all in China, and supported by Mt. Carmel Auxiliary, Maysville District.

Lena Magill, Brazil. Supported by Shelbyville District.

In order that the forward step be taken this year, it is necessary to add a large number of new members. When we consider the small number, less than two thousand, of the twenty thousand women and girls in the Kentucky Conference, whom we have not reached, it should stir us to action as never before, and make us forget ease and self indulgence, and cause us to ask: Lord, show us thy will, and what Thou wouldst have us to do, and for the accomplishment of the things we are working for we ask the co-operation of every pastor in the Kentucky Conference.

MRS. A. T. FORSYTHE,
Cor. Sec'y Kentucky Conference.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1907.

The work done by the Woman's Home Mission Society throughout the M. E. Church, South, shows a gratifying increase. Out of about 1,000,000 women and children in the church we have a membership of 53,833, an increase of 6,315. Our dues at ten cents per month amounted to $46,491. Specials, $50,735, contributed to fifteen schools for Cubans and Italians in Florida, Chinese, Japanese and Koreans in California, and the mountaineers of Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina. We assisted 182 parsonages to the sum of $18,255. There is reported $22,985 spent by eighteen city mission boards, 929 boxes of supplies sent to needy pastors and orphans, valued at $25,849, and $205,287 spent in local work, all showing a commendable zeal of the comparative few who serve in the church. A grand total of $355,118, an average of $6.60 per member.

Kentucky Conference has not failed in her share of funds, paying $6 per member.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Conference Board of Church Extension, Kentucky Conference, the M. E. Church, South, met in Frankfort, Ky., September 11, 1907.

Dr. W. F. McMurray, General Secretary, appeared before the Board and urged upon it the importance of securing such action of the Conference as will establish a regular system of Birthday Offerings for our Sunday-schools. The plan is to encourage every pupil in each school to make an annual Birthday Offering, the aggregate offerings in these schools to be forwarded, before the close of the Conference year, to the Treasurer of the Conference Sunday-school Board, who in turn, will forward it to D. M. Smith, Treasurer of the General Sunday-school Board.

The amounts obtained from these offerings are to be appropriated, from year to year, to such special causes as the Sunday-school Board may deem most needy and worthy.

At the present time the cause is church building in Oklahoma, that the Sunday-schools in that important field may be housed.

Your Conference Board of Church Extension would respectfully recommend the adoption of this system, and that the reception of this report be construed as securing such action.

The Board, after careful investigation, made the following appropriations:

Erlanger, Boone County	$177 75
Poplar Plains, Fleming County	400 00
Mount Olivet, Mason County	300 00
Burnside, Pulaski County	325 00
Tyrone, Anderson County	250 00
Chestnut Grove, Whitley County	50 00

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education of the Kentucky Annual Conference, M. E. Church South, are glad to report gratifying progress in the interests committed to them as a Board.

I. The enrollment of students in the college the past scholastic year was the best in the history of the institution, and the enrollment at the opening of the present year is thirty-two in advance of the opening last year. This proves the valuable work done and influence exerted by our President, H. K. Taylor.

II. The resources and equipment of the college have also been improved.

1st. The endowment fund has been increased from $59,443.14 to $61,773.14.

2d. The fund for the establishment of the new industrial plant, in cash and subscriptions, has now reached $3,250. Some equipment for this important enterprise has already been purchased.

3d. The sum of $655 has been collected on the subscription made at our last Conference session for a teacher at Campton Academy, and the purchase of a piano and organ for the college. The teacher has been paid, and the instruments duly installed. Thus adding to the college equipment.

4th. The J. N. Ison bequest for the education in our college of young men entering the ministry of our church, and mentioned in last year's report, has been collected, and amounts to over $1,300. This fund is made immediately available.

The Campton Academy has opened its fall term with two hundred and fifty students enrolled, and Prof. E. E. Whitesides, with three assistants, doing good work.

ENDOWMENT FUND ACCOUNT.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education of the Kentucky Annual Conference, M. E. Church South, appreciates the presence at this session of the Secretary of the General Board of Education, Dr. J. D. Hammond. His private advice and public address was of interest and profit to us.

Our pride and interest in Vanderbilt University grows with the progress and widening influence of that great institution.

We rejoice in the increased interest in the colored people in our

State and Southland as indicated by the collection taken upon the Conference floor, and the increased support given to schools sustained and assisted by our people.

We recommend an assessment upon our Conference of $4,000 for educational work within the Conference.

We also recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved. That we recommend to the Conference the establishment of a Preachers' and Christian Workers' Institute, to be held annually at Kentucky Wesleyan College, including the annual Commencement Sunday, and six days following that day. The object of that institute shall be to train workers in Sunday-school, Epworth League, Missions and other departments of church work and Bible study.

To provide for this institute, and to carry out its purposes, we recommend the appointment of a committee consisting of three preachers and two laymen, said committee to consist of the following, viz: The Presiding Elder of the Lexington District, pastor of the church at Winchester, H. K. Taylor, J. M. Strother, J. M. Fuqua.

OUR EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS.

Kentucky Wesleyan College, value of property.....	$100,000 00
Kentucky Wesleyan College, endowment.....	61,775 00

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Under data before this body, submitted by respective agencies of both General and Annual Conference Literatures, there is record of positive progress.

First. In mechanical exhibit, better paper and better printing; improved variety of instructive topic and news item; better classification and distribution of matter in the printer's work and editor's art.

Second. A wider range of helpful information to serve the mission of the church, for a New Testament inspiration.

Third. Especially as attractive and helpful to the youth of our church families is the pictorial feature of our church literatures to be commended. We should say on behalf of the class referred, for obvious reasons, give us more instead of less of pictorial art, especially in our weekly press, as well as in the magazine.

Problem of Increased Circulation.

We can not escape ancient history of the old exhortation, for increased circulation in urging:

First. To make full proof of our ministry, personal solicitation of subscriptions and sales by pastors.

Second. By our church societies. In this special agency the womanhood of Southern Methodism have wrought heroic results.

Third. Special canvassing committees appointed by presiding elders and pastors. It is believed by your committee that the elder of each district holds a central, vital relation in awakening emulative effort among the charges of his district. The work of Dr. J. R. Deering in this feature in districts served by him is for incentive to us all.

Fourth. Again, as respectfully submitted to our eldership. For gospel emulative, let a district honor roll of subscriptional for all our church and periodical literatures be instituted commencing first Sunday in October, for start from the post. Let the Elder quarterly, at each charge, ask for totals of subscriptions received for all our journals, The Review, Advocate, Methodist Era, Go Forward, Visitor, etc.

Note it as a record of the Quarterly Conference. Publish it in the Central. Publish this competitive from the P. E. and pastor's pulpit. Paragraph by local pastor in the county newspaper, as to speed schedule, &c., of the competitive, will help.

Against the Problem of Increase of Circulation Respectfully Suggested.

Let aggregate of the district competitive for circulative of literatures have a crowning day at the District Conference. Bring forth the laurel for the winners. Reverently, righteously make it one of the glad days, a hosanna day of the Lord, as the laurel ribbon or medal rests upon those who have achieved the race set before them.

Lastly, the Manner and Merit of Our Publications.

In prefatory of this report, advertence is made to excellences. Rather than unhelpful criticism, but in fraternal spirit, our brethren of the toiling pen will welcome our suggestive, here and there, though it be crude—to help their page. In such, therefore, it might be suggested that in the present thirty pages of the Christian Advocate the managing editor give us a table of leading contents on the first page of the Advocate, also the Central as served in leading religious journals.

Church Hymnal.

We give expression to earnest concern in behalf of use of Church Hymnals and its unworthy and illegal substitution by other publications.

In Sunday-school literatures, in timely books and courses of correspondence classes—in year books of various church departments—the advantages for full instruction can not be neglected without vital loss.

Lastly, but not least, attention is recalled to the Quarterly Review, edited by Dr. Gross Alexander. It may be said at once that it is out-classed by no similar church review in two hemispheres, and such award is not of rhetoric, but for honest comparison in the record.

E. H. PEARCE, Chairman.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your American Bible Society Board, beg leave to submit the following report:

We recognize the American Bible Society as one of the great agencies in the past in making it possible, wherever their agents have gone, for every man to have his own Bible, by their putting the price so very low and by their agents in giving them to the poor.

We also would make honorable mention of their noble work in supplying the soldiers of heathen lands with the scriptures through the various accessible avenues. We very well recognize their assistance to our missionaries in their work by affording us so many different translations in heathen languages and thereby making it possible for our converts among the heathen to have their own Bible. But since they have published the Revised American Standard Edition of the New Testament, and our attention has been called to a pamphlet by Dr. John Adams, of the Texas Conference, entitled "Very Important," in which he aims to show that some erroneous and strange translations of a denominational character appear in this edition of the New Testament, and since this position seems to us to be well taken and a number of the leading men of our church give him their endorsement, among them Bishops Hoss, Key and the editor of our Nashville Christian Advocate, we, therefore, recommend that our Kentucky Conference fall in line with the Texas Conference and memorialize the General Conference to take such action as they may deem wise to rightly adjust this matter.

C. M. HUMPHREY, Ch'n.
W. L. CLARK, Sec'y.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records begs leave to submit the following report:

The book of the Frankfort District is a model one, in good handwriting, free from blots, and correct in make-up. This is also equally true of the Covington District Records. We have no criticism to make upon them.

The records of Maysville and Danville Districts have been kept with much care. We can not say the same of the records of the Lexington District. Due regard was not given by the secretary to the correct formation of sentences. Then the lack of clearness is somewhat prevalent.

The records of the Shelbyville District are in excellent form, but fail to show any work done in the several charges.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. SPATES, Ch'n,
E. K. PIKE, Sec'y.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

Your Committee on Conference Relations has considered the names referred and recommend for the superannuate relation J. C. Minor, P. H. Hoffman, M. P. Morgan, T. J. Godbey, R. H. Hobbs, and M. W. Hiner.

For the supernumerary relation: G. N. Buffington, T. F. Taliaferro, F. W. Noland, W. W. Spates, F. A. Savage, and J. R. Word.

A. REDD, Ch'n.

ORPHAN'S HOME.

Your committee reports as follows:

The statement of Bro. H. Wirgman, President of the Board of Managers, gives the following facts:

September 1, 1906, there were 44 children (15 girls and 29 boys) in the Home. Three boys and nine girls were received during the year. Three girls and thirteen boys were placed in homes during the year. Fifteen girls and twenty-five boys are now in the institution. Colds and measles invaded the Home during the past winter. One of the little girls, Susie Nutgrass, was so badly burned that after lingering eight weeks she died. Every attention was given, but to no avail. The efficient services of the Ladies Board, E. S. Boswell, agent, and increased collections from Fifth Sunday collections have met increased expenses without indebtedness. The children are now in good health and show marked mental and moral improvement, due much to loving attention of matron and her sister. Through bequest of Mrs. Chenoweth, who died at Lexington, Ky., $1,700 has been added to the endowment fund with prospects of $100 additional. The Ladies Board and the Board of Directors are giving very faithful service. We recommend the appointment of E. S. Boswell as agent, and Miss Laura Y. Nadal as matron for the ensuing year.

The President's report presents the following table of assets and liabilities:

ASSETS.

Home property, 903 Fifth St	$34,500 00
Furniture in Home	2,000 00
Store house, 317 W. Market St	22,573 00
Five cottages, Tenth St	6,700 00
Unimproved property, 36th and Orleans St	275 00
One stable, York between 5th and 6th Sts	350 00
Two-story brick house, 718 Washington St	1,500 00
Two-story brick house, 720 Washington St	1,462 00
Bills receivable	10,425 00
Cash, endowment account in hands of treasurer	2,607 08
Cash, expense account in hands of Treasurer	287 55
Cash, expense account in hands of matron	8 73

Total $82,688 36

Liabilities, none.

From the agent's report we gather these facts:

Six beds endowed at a cost of $12.50 each. One hundred and ten boxes and barrels well packed with every good thing have been received. In five years the Fifth Sunday collections from Sunday-schools, have increased from $1,259.70 to 2,681.73. About forty-eight per cent. of this is from the Kentucky Conference and about fifty-two per cent. from the Louisville Conference.

The agent has raised in small amounts the following:

In cash	$6,512 54
In good subscriptions, unpaid	700 00
One hundred and ten boxes and barrels	550 00
Total	$7,762 54

To accomplish this the agent has used every honest means. He has sent out 5,000 letters, 1,800 postals and several notices and receipts. We commend his faithful service. The Central Methodist has kindly opened its columns which has been freely used.

J. M. JOHNSON, Ch'n.

P. C. EVERSOLE, Sec'y.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance beg leave to offer the following report:

We are grateful for any awakening of the public conscience towards a better enforcement of the Sabbath laws in our State, and we feel that our work will not be done until this result is permanently attained.

We are mindful of the scriptural limitations of our body in relation to civil and political matters, but at the same time we do not forget the obligation resting upon us to bear testimony as witnesses and teachers of public, as well as private morals, and, therefore, we declare in the most unequivocal manner that we are in favor of the absolute enforcement of the Sabbath laws throughout our entire State.

We are opposed to the violation of the sacredness of the Sabbath day in any and every sense whatever, and to this end we affirm that we are opposed to the running of railroad cars, street cars, steamboats, stage coaches, and other such conveyances. We are also opposed to the open meat shop, the barber shop, the cigar stand, the ice cream stand, the ice wagon, the milk wagon, and all other such things on the Sabbath day, and we call upon all our people everywhere to refrain from patronizing them.

We desire to state that we believe that the lawlessness and recklessness to be seen in many parts of our State grows largely out of the open and defiant ways in which the Holy Sabbath is desecrated.

We feel called upon to make special mention of the pernicious custom that has sprung up among us of playing match games of base ball in all our cities and towns on the Sabbath day.

We believe that the Sunday newspaper is one great source of evil among us, and that they are doing much to corrupt and break down the morals of our country, and we would be glad to see them abolished.

We are rejoiced to see a disposition upon the part of some of our office holders to have a better enforcement of the Sabbath laws in some of our large cities and towns, and we recognize the wisdom and courage which our Governor displayed when he met the moral demands of the great crisis in Louisville, and we hereby most earnestly and respectfully implore him to carry the same policy into the other cities and towns of the State until our entire Commonwealth shall be made to feel the force of our wholesome and salutary Sabbath laws.

We endorse the Sunday League of America, and hope it will succeed in its determined efforts to restore the Sabbath to its exalted and scriptural position

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday-school Board report great progress in the church at large. We present these statistics furnished us by the General Secretary:

Year.	No. of Schools.	Officers and Teachers	Schools.
1905	14,898	109,655	1,040,748
1906	14,892	111,137	1,084,238
Loss	6	Gain 1,482	Gain 34,400

The circulation of our literature is rapidly increasing; the net gain for the year was 76,192 copies.

The literature of our church for the Sunday-schools deserves the highest praise. We urge our pastors and churches to use all our publications in their schools.

We commend to our teachers and older pupils the Sunday-school Magazine. It is a very superior lesson help, and we hope it will have a much wider circulation. With this broad commendation, it is our duty to protest that certain articles, from high authority, recently published in the Sunday-school Magazine questions the authority of the scripture by narrowing the field of inspiration.

We recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Sunday-school Board supply programs for Children's Day to all our schools and pay for them out of money contributed on that day.

Resolved, That our leaders be urged to diligently use the plans of the Adult Bible Class, the Baracca Class, the Home Department, the Cradle Roll, the Teachers Bible Study Circle.

Resolved, That our schools should take part in establishing the Chair in Pedagogy in Vanderbilt University.

Resolved, That we approve the Christian Workers Institute to be held annually at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

We also suggest that the Presiding Elders see that county organizations of our own people be effected, and that rallies be held wherever it is practicable.

The General Board has devised the plan of Birthday Offerings in every school, the proceeds to be sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Boards, and by him forwarded to Mr. D. M. Smith. The amount so obtained is to be applied at the discretion of the General Board, and they have decided that for the next two years the Birthday Offering shall be disbursed by Rev. W. F. McMurray, 705 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, Ky., towards assisting our people in Oklahoma in building churches, where we have 477 houseless congregations. Dr. McMurray will furnish every school with a contribution box free. We pledge the Board our hearty co-operation in working this plan.

The Treasurer's report is herewith submitted.

TEMPERANCE.

Report of the Committee of the Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on Temperance:

Intrenched, as it is, in the strongholds of sin; strengthened, as it is, by immense wealth and relentlessly defying, as it does, all restrictive laws in the interest of good morals, the liquor curse is today the greatest tower of human wickedness that lifts itself in this land of churches.

We hail the wonderful achievements made along all moral lines the past year, and especially the no license victories throughout Kentucky as cause for great hope and inspiration, yet we realize that while we face a future full of opportunity we enter this future under great obligations to unite in solid compact: all good citizens for the complete abolition of this monstrous iniquities. Because this moral issue has assumed a political and legislative aspect does not carry it out of the sphere of church action; therefore,

Be it resolved, As the church was organized to save society from its sins, it is the duty of church members to demand of men seeking offices of public trust an unqualified opposition to the licensed saloon; and since the twig of Methodism was so bent towards this reform by its great founder, there should be beneath its branches no shelter for cowardice or compromise.

Resolved, We hereby express our approval and endorsement of the position taken by our Chief Executive for the enforcement of Sunday laws, and many other officials who in cities and towns have defended the Sabbath from this blighting curse of civilization.

Resolved, That we favor the passage of an act by the next Legislature submitting to a vote of the people of this State an amendment to the Constitution of this State prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Resolved, We recommend the use of unfermented wine in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, as consistent with the character of a total abstinence church.

Resolved, Since the cigarette habit is dulling the brain, weakening the heart and poisoning the blood of our youth, to an alarming extent, and the use of tobacco, in any form, encourages its habit, we hereby request, on the part of both preachers and laymen, total abstinence from the use of tobacco.

Resolved, That Geo. W. Young and C. K. Dickey be appointed delegates to the coming Anti-Saloon meeting of America, and that Geo. W. Bain, G. B. Winslow, Revs. J. R. Deering, W. E. Arnold and J. D. Redd compose the State Committee of said league for the coming year.

REV. ALLEN, Chairman.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Preachers' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, South, Kentucky Conference, submits the following report:

The Board of Managers of the Society had under consideration several important subjects of vital interest to the Society and to the Conference, viz:

1. The importance of reviving the Immediate Relief Fund, which fund came into the hands of the Preachers' Aid Society some three years ago. In order to do this, it was agreed to appoint a committee consisting of three members to examine the constitution and by-laws of the Preachers' Aid Society, and the Immediate Relief Society and formulate such a constitution and by-laws as will merge the two societies into one, the President of the Board to appoint the committee.

The President appointed W. W. Ball as chairman of the committee, and reserved the appointment of the other members.

2. H. C. Wright was appointed collector for the Preachers' Aid Society, and the Immediate Relief Fund for the ensuing year.

3. The great importance of increasing our endowment fund was felt in order that a larger amount of money might be realized. Therefore, it was

Resolved, "That the Board of Managers of the Preachers' Aid Society ask the Conference to request the pastors to present to each congregation during the year the object and work of the Preachers' Aid Society asking for bequests, and take a collection to increase the endowment fund of said society."

4. Bro. J. J. Dickey was appointed as agent to increase the endowment fund, Bro. Dickey agreeing to act without salary.

5. The board made appropriations amounting to $1,120.90.

6. The following names were recommended as a board and as officers of that board: M. T. Chandler, President; J. A. Sawyer, First Vice President; H. C. Wright, Second Vice President; W. W. Ball, Treasurer; J. W. Harris, J. B. Howe, T. W. Watts, Thos. B. Smith, Arthur O'Rear, J. R. Nelson, J. W. Bramel, M. S. Clark, J. J. Dickey, F. B. Jones, J. T. Morgan.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR T. O'REAR, Secretary.

RECOMMENDATION.

We, the Joint Board of Finance, see the need of a better provision for homes for our superannuated preachers. Learning of the Morris Plan, which has been worked successfully in other Conferences, we therefore recommend this plan to this Conference, and ask that the presiding elders, on their respective districts, be requested to look after securing such homes.

Kentucky Wesleyan College

Winchester, Kentucky

¶ The college of 100,000 Methodists in Kentucky. Splendid new buildings and a course of study as good as can be had. Both elective courses and those leading to the B. S. and A. B. degrees are given. Kentucky Wesleyan College has a high standard of moral and religious influence that makes it a safe place for a young man. Expenses very moderate. Second term will open January 21st.

¶ Every Methodist boy in Kentucky who goes away to college should go to Kentucky Wesleyan College as his own and only college in the State. We ask the aid of the preachers in talking for the college, sending in names, etc.

BEECHMONT, KY.

THIS splendid old school with the newest and most approved methods is a prime favorite with the best families all over Kentucky. It does not want a large patronage, but it courts the best—that of those who want real and thorough scholarship for their sons instead of “athleticism gone to seed.” We want those who appreciate a home-life school, with the best religious influences; a school that combines literary and military at the price of one—a school where industry in studies, integrity in character, economy in expenses, thoroughness in everything is demanded of the students.

L. T. S. prepares for the best universities, and prepares a boy for life's hardest battles, whether he attends university afterward or not. Our course is thorough and up-to-date: Our expenses are quite moderate for the excellent advantages afforded: Our location is the best in the State, Beautiful Beechmont, possessing all the advantages of both city and country with no disadvantages of either: Our discipline is mild, firm, parental, and brings things to pass in a boy's life.

We encourage athletics only on our own premises. We build men out of boys—cultivating them in head, hand and heart; and are willing to pledge you our best efforts for your son. Get in correspondence at once with us. You may enter at any time but better at term openings.

Fall Term Opens September 17, 1907.

Spring Term Opens January 20, 1908.

We offer you a clean, wholesome, efficient school, non-sectarian—yet thoroughly religious—whose fruitage is a symmetrical boy who obeys, respects duty, esteems himself and makes life worth the living.
